Signed MOU with Advantech Co., Ltd., a Leading Company in Industrial Computing

BellaDati has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Advantech Co., Ltd., a leading company in the industrial computing sector, to further enhance value in the Fleet Management domain.

By integrating Advantech's TREK series of in-vehicle computers—known for their rugged design and edge computing capabilities—with BellaDati's service platform, the collaboration enhances the overall practicality and scalability of Fleet Management Systems through advanced vehicle data collection, real-time analytics, and visualization. The ultimate goal is to provide a smart, data-driven solution that enables more efficient and informed fleet operations.
